Motion Network Holding PLC appoints Jason Rosamond to the Board of Directors

London, England May 15 -- Motion Network Holding PLC (MNH) today announced that it has appointed Mr. Jason Rosamond as an Executive Director on the company's Board of Directors. Mr. Rosamond will serve as the organisation's COO, managing the rollout of operations across Europe.

Mr. Rosamond has extensive experience in developing and managing start-up organisations through periods of strong growth having spent 10 years at the UK technology company, Agilisys. As a Partner and Managing Director of Agilisys, Mr. Rosamond was instrumental in leading the development of Agilisys from a small software development firm to a leading UK IT services and outsourcing organisation employing over 1,000 staff members in the UK, Ireland, and India.

Rio Pierre-Yves Dongour, CEO of Motion Network Holding, comments: "Motion Network has been refining its business model and operating plan in conjunction with Jason and the Board for some time. Jason's understanding of how we might leverage technology to advance our vision has played a key role in our latest developments. He brings a range of insights from his experience in finance and IT which we believe will be instrumental in the success of our company and we very much look forward to building our business with his support."

Mr. Rosamond added: "The Motion Network vision is quite extraordinary as is the business plan through which we intend to implement it. We have assembled an impressive team of individuals and we eagerly anticipate the launch of our new services in the coming weeks, months, and years."
